

Mark Day School
Independent, Non Religious, Coeducational K-8
Part-time Support Teacher Positions Beginning August 2017

Mark Day School seeks a self-motivated support teachers to support a 2nd grade classroom teachers for 15-17 hours a week. The job is M-F and require occasional meetings after school. The ideal candidate should have previous classroom experience and have a positive, encouraging demeanor with children. He/she should also be able to work with small groups, teach occasional lessons, and participate as a member of our grade level team of teachers.

Responsibilities/Qualifications include:

- *classroom clerical and prep work
- *working with small groups of children
- *occasionally teaching small group lessons
- *occasional travel on classroom field trips
- *initiate intervention with students when needed
- *comfort with technology

Mark Day School is an independent, non religious, coeducational K-8 school located in the Bay Area in San Rafael, CA, with an enrollment of 380 students. Innovative, inclusive, and full of heart, Mark Day School unites an enriched, rigorous academic program with a kind and inclusive community. The school nurtures a love of learning, engagement in the community, and development of compassion and an ethical framework. Students learn and practice the intellectual, social, and emotional skills they will apply to the unique challenges and opportunities of their time; graduates stand out not only for their intellectual curiosity and pursuit of ideas, but also for their joy of learning and deep sense of responsibility to be active, engaged citizens.

Mark Day School has established a consistent practice of thoughtful innovation in its curricular program, focusing on current century skills and concepts including four cross-curricular strands: Global Education, Media and Information Literacy, Environmental Sustainability, and Social and Emotional Learning. Highlights include the NAIS Leading Edge Award-winning Media Literacy program; well-established local and global partnerships with the Canal Alliance of San Rafael, eSibonisweni School and Kliptown Youth Program in South Africa, and Beijing Experimental Primary School #2 in China, and Pan American School in Costa Rica, among others; SmartBoard technology in every classroom, with a one-to-one laptop program beginning in sixth grade; Mandarin and Spanish language beginning in kindergarten; an integrated Social and Emotional Learning program; a commitment to differentiation across the school; and more.

Mark Day School is a vibrant and diverse community, and all community members continue to work towards the furthering of an inclusive and supportive school. Mark Day School is an equal opportunity employer committed to excellence through diversity and multiculturalism. Mark Day School salary and benefits are very competitive by both NAIS and regional standards. For more information about Mark Day School, please visit our website (www.markdayschool.org).

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest and resume via email to Thad Reichley, Lower School Director, at (lsresumes@markdayschool.org).